Kennedy Space Center (KSC)

Launching Humanity's Future

NASA Kennedy Space Center's mission statement is to 'Provide continuous access to space from Earth's premiere spaceport through creativity and innovation'. The agency accomplishes this by having the largest concentration of space launch operators in the world located on Kennedy. KSC's infrastructure, research and innovative technologies enables both government and commercial space ventures, advances the science that teaches us more about our planet and universe, and builds the future of long-term human space exploration.
