

OFFICE OF SMALL BUSINESS PROGRAMS at NASA Headquarters

NASA Headquarters, located in Washington, DC, oversees and coordinates the Agency’s overall mission and activities. NASA Headquarters is also home to the NASA Office of Small Business Programs (OSBP), which provides leadership and guidance, and implements initiatives to support small business participation across the Agency’s missions. Additionally, NASA OSBP sets policies and guidelines that guide small business engagement, ensuring that small enterprises have opportunities to compete for contracts and contribute innovative solutions to NASA’s missions. Through strategic initiatives and partnerships, NASA Headquarters OSBP promotes economic growth, technological innovation, and job creation within the small business community, aligning with the Agency’s goals of advancing space exploration and scientific discovery.
