

NON-REIMBURSABLE SPACE ACT AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE NATIONAL AERONAUTICS AND SPACE ADMINISTRATION
LYNDON B. JOHNSON SPACE CENTER
AND
WEB VISION CENTERS GROUP, LLC
FOR
VISION DIAGNOSTICS CAPABILITIES AND REQUIREMENTS

ARTICLE 1. AUTHORITY AND PARTIES

In accordance with the National Aeronautics and Space Act (51 U.S.C. § 20113(e)), this Agreement is entered into by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration Lyndon B. Johnson Space Center, located at 2101 NASA Parkway, Houston, Texas 77058 (hereinafter referred to as "NASA" or "NASA JSC") and Web Vision Centers Group, LLC located at 2546 Red Bird Lane, Lakeland, FL, 33810-2338 (hereinafter referred to as "Partner" or "Web Vision"). NASA and Partner may be individually referred to as a "Party" and collectively referred to as the "Parties."

ARTICLE 2. PURPOSE

The purpose of the agreement is to share information between Web Vision and NASA in order to determine the capabilities, requirements, and specifications needed to develop specialized ocular and vision diagnostics/testing devices that may be instrumental in detecting and monitoring Spaceflight-Associated Neuro-ocular Syndrome (SANS) during deep space missions. One of the NASA Space Medicine Operation Division goals is to identify and implement a set of preventative countermeasures for SANS. There is a multi-faceted approach that aims to determine the underlying risk factors for developing SANS, to test possible countermeasures to prevent or reverse it, and to identify potential long-term health outcomes resulting from SANS findings. There are currently no commercial off-the-shelf (COTS) medical diagnostic devices which meet anticipated NASA medical requirements for SANS diagnostic testing during deep space exploration. Working with the Partner to determine the capabilities, requirements, and specifications needed to develop specialized vision diagnostics/testing devices all serve to meet NASA's exploration goals. NASA subject matter experts may provide the unique insight which allows the Partner to concurrently meet the medical requirements of exploration spaceflight, as well as terrestrial medicine.

The capabilities, requirements, and specifications developed through these collaborations may assist the Partner and others to develop devices that may find commercial application within terrestrial ophthalmic health care, especially in environments where device weight, footprint, and portability are critical. These diagnostic devices may have applicability to health care providers serving in small clinics, traveling to remote patients (e.g., in homes or nursing facilities), or providing humanitarian aid. These diagnostic devices may also have applicability to U.S. Military Medicine in austere environments (e.g., on board an aircraft carrier or near a combat area).

ARTICLE 3. RESPONSIBILITIES

A. NASA JSC will use reasonable efforts to:

- 1) Collaborate with Partner to determine the capabilities and requirements of ocular and vision testing/diagnostic equipment necessary for exploratory spaceflight missions.
- 2) Collaborate with Partner to develop device specifications for ocular and vision testing/diagnostic devices such as a compact retinal imager, miniaturized optical coherence tomography (OCT), and other devices deemed valuable to exploratory spaceflight missions.
- 3) Collaborate with Partner to determine what research, development, test, and evaluation (RDT&E) processes and tasks are required to successfully develop, validate, and deploy specific ocular and vision testing/diagnostic devices for exploratory spaceflight missions (e.g., timelines, device design, clinical validations, flight certification, terrestrial and on-orbit technical demonstrations, etc.).

B. Partner will use reasonable efforts to:

- 1) Collaborate with NASA to determine the capabilities and requirements of ocular and vision testing/diagnostic equipment necessary for exploratory spaceflight missions.
- 2) Collaborate with NASA to develop device specifications for ocular and vision testing/diagnostic devices such as a compact retinal imager, miniaturized optical coherence tomography (OCT), and other devices deemed valuable to exploratory spaceflight missions
- 3) Collaborate with NASA to determine what research, development, test, and evaluation (RDT&E) processes and tasks are required to successfully develop, validate, and deploy specific ocular and vision testing/diagnostic devices for exploratory spaceflight missions (e.g., timelines, device design, clinical validations, flight certification, terrestrial and on-orbit technical demonstrations, etc.).
- 4) Seek out and communicate with 3rd-party companies, as necessary, that have the skills, experience, expertise, and technology necessary to support the discovery/investigation process of developing specialized ocular and vision testing/diagnostic devices for exploratory spaceflight missions to obtain input supporting collaboration between Partner and NASA under this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4. SCHEDULE AND MILESTONES

The planned major milestones for the activities defined in the "Responsibilities" Article are as follows:

1. Partner and NASA will determine capabilities and requirements for SANS devices	One year from execution date
2. Partner and NASA will determine specifications for SANS devices.	2 years from execution date
3. Web Vision will identify 3rd-party companies, as necessary, to support SANS device development.	2.5 years from execution date
4. Partner and NASA will determine necessary RDT&E processes for SANS device development and deployment.	5 years from execution date

ARTICLE 5. FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

There will be no transfer of funds between the Parties under this Agreement and each Party will fund its own participation. All activities under or pursuant to this Agreement are subject to the availability of funds, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to require obligation or payment of funds in violation of the Anti-Deficiency Act, (31 U.S.C. § 1341).

ARTICLE 6. PRIORITY OF USE

Any schedule or milestone in this Agreement is estimated based upon the Parties' current understanding of the projected availability of NASA goods, services, facilities, or equipment. In the event that NASA's projected availability changes, Partner shall be given reasonable notice of that change, so that the schedule and milestones may be adjusted accordingly. The Parties agree that NASA's use of the goods, services, facilities, or equipment shall have priority over the use planned in this Agreement. Should a conflict arise, NASA in its sole discretion shall determine whether to exercise that priority. Likewise, should a conflict arise as between two or more non-NASA Partners, NASA, in its sole discretion, shall determine the priority as between those Partners. This Agreement does not obligate NASA to seek alternative government property or services under the jurisdiction of NASA at other locations.

ARTICLE 7. NONEXCLUSIVITY

This Agreement is not exclusive; accordingly, NASA may enter into similar agreements for the same or similar purpose with other private or public entities.

ARTICLE 8. LIABILITY AND RISK OF LOSS

A. Each Party hereby waives any claim against the other Party or one or more of its Related Entities (defined below) for any injury to, or death of, the waiving Party or one or more of its Related Entities, or for damage to, or loss of, the waiving Party's property or the property of its Related Entities arising from or related to activities conducted under this Agreement, whether such injury, death, damage, or loss arises through negligence or otherwise, except in the case of willful misconduct.

B. Partner further agrees to extend this waiver to its related entities by requiring them, by contract or otherwise, to waive all claims against NASA and its Related Entities for injury, death, damage, or loss arising from or related to activities conducted under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Related Entities" shall mean contractors and subcontractors of a Party at any tier; grantees, investigators, customers, and users of a Party at any tier and their contractors or subcontractor at any tier; or, employees of the Party or any of the foregoing.

C. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Article, the waivers of liability set forth in this section shall not be applicable to:

- i. Claims between a Party and its own Related Entity or between its own Related Entities;
- ii. Claims made by a natural person, his/her estate, survivors, or anyone claiming by or through him/her (except when such person or entity is a Party to this Agreement or is otherwise bound by the terms of this waiver) for bodily injury to, or other impairment of health of, or death of, such person;
- iii. Claims for damage caused by willful misconduct;
- iv. Intellectual property claims;
- v. Claims for damage resulting from a failure of a Party to extend the waiver of liability to its Related Entities, pursuant to paragraph B of this Article; or
- vi. Claims by a Party arising out of or relating to another Party's failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE 9. LIABILITY AND RISK OF LOSS - PRODUCT LIABILITY

With respect to products or processes resulting from a Party's participation in an SAA, each Party that markets, distributes, or otherwise provides such product, or a product designed or produced by such a process, directly to the public will be solely responsible for the safety of the product or process.

G. Patent Filing Responsibilities and Costs

1. The invention and patent rights herein apply to any patent application or patents covering an invention made under this Agreement. Each Party is responsible for its own costs of obtaining and maintaining patents covering sole inventions of its employees. The Parties may agree otherwise, upon the reporting of any invention (sole or joint) or in any license granted.

2. Partner shall include the following in patent applications for an invention made jointly between NASA employees, its Related Entity employees and Partner employees:

The invention described herein may be manufactured and used by or for the U.S. Government for U.S. Government purposes without the payment of royalties thereon or therefore.

ARTICLE 12. USE OF NASA NAME AND NASA EMBLEMS

A. NASA Name and Initials

Partner shall not use "National Aeronautics and Space Administration" or "NASA" in a way that creates the impression that a product or service has the authorization, support, sponsorship, or endorsement of NASA, which does not, in fact, exist. Except for releases under the "Release of General Information to the Public and Media" Article, Partner must submit any proposed public use of the NASA name or initials (including press releases and all promotional and advertising use) to the NASA Associate Administrator for the Office of Communications or designee ("NASA Communications") for review and approval.
