GENERATIVE ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE TECHNOLOGIES

ARTICLE 1. AUTHORITY AND PARTIES

In accordance with the National Aeronautics and Space Act (51 U.S.C. § 20113(e)), this Agreement is entered into by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration Ames Research Center, located at Moffett Field, CA 94035 (hereinafter referred to as "NASA" or "NASA ARC") and The Boston Consulting Group, Inc. located at 200 Pier 4 Boulevard, Boston, MA, 02210-2453 (hereinafter referred to as "Partner" or "BCG"). NASA and Partner may be individually referred to as a "Party" and collectively referred to as the "Parties."

ARTICLE 2. PURPOSE

NASA ARC and Boston Consulting Group (BCG) will enter into a Non-Reimbursable Space Act Agreement to explore the short and long-term benefits of new Generative Artificial Intelligence (GenAI) technologies related to earth science, (e.g., Geostationary Operational Environmental Satellite (GOES) weather data), life sciences, and engineering, domains. Under this agreement, NASA and BCG will conduct research, development, testing and evaluation of GenAI technologies; and analyze the growth of the responsible GenAI technologies through the utilization of publicly accessible datasets. NASA and BCG intend to create joint publications on technical evaluation criteria for different scenarios, use cases, and test cases as applied to the performance of various publicly available, open source GenAI models.

Potential benefits to NASA include improved optimization algorithms for tasks in the areas of earth science, life sciences, and engineering domains.

BCG will potentially benefit by increasing its expertise in developing GenAI technologies in earth science, life sciences, and engineering domains.

ARTICLE 3. RESPONSIBILITIES

A. NASA ARC will use reasonable efforts to:

1. Share mutually agreed upon publicly available datasets in the science and engineering domains as needed to develop and train GenAI models.

2. GOES weather satellite data will be the basis for the first foundation model. Both parties will jointly determine the next domain based on the results of GOES work.
3. Collaborate with BCG to develop a list of GenAI tools along with a set of best practices usable by the NASA and the wider scientific community.
4. Collaborate with BCG to identify technical evaluation criteria for different scenarios, use cases, and test cases to assess the performance of the GenAI models and tools for collaborative research purposes only in the domains of earth science, life science, and engineering.
5. Exchange best practices for mitigating issues and challenges in utilizing GenAI tools and models.
6. Engage with BCG on joint publications.

B. Partner will use reasonable efforts to:

1. Collaborate with NASA to develop a list of GenAI tools and along with a set of best practices usable by NASA and the wider scientific community.
2. GOES weather satellite data will be the basis for the first foundation model. Both parties will jointly determine the next domain based on the results of GOES work.
3. Collaborate with NASA to identify technical evaluation criteria for different scenarios, use cases, and test cases to assess the performance of the preliminary GenAI models and tools for collaborative research purposes only in the domains of earth science, life science, and engineering.

ARTICLE 6. PRIORITY OF USE

Any schedule or milestone in this Agreement is estimated based upon the Parties' current understanding of the projected availability of NASA goods, services, facilities, or equipment. In the event that NASA's projected availability changes, Partner shall be given reasonable notice of that change, so that the schedule and milestones may be adjusted accordingly. The Parties agree that NASA's use of the goods, services, facilities, or equipment shall have priority over the use planned in this Agreement. Should a conflict arise, NASA in its sole discretion shall determine whether to exercise that priority. Likewise, should a conflict arise as between two or more non-NASA Partners, NASA, in its sole discretion, shall determine the priority as between those Partners. This Agreement does not obligate NASA to seek alternative government property or services under the jurisdiction of NASA at other locations.

This license is subject to paragraph E.2. of this Article.

D. Joint Inventions With Partner

The Parties will use reasonable efforts to report, and cooperate in obtaining patent protection on, inventions made jointly between NASA employees, Partner employees, and employees of either Party's Related Entities. Upon timely request, NASA may, at its sole discretion and subject to paragraph E. of this Article:

1. refrain from exercising its undivided interest inconsistently with Partner's commercial business; or

2. For inventions made solely or jointly by employees of a NASA Related Entity, NASA reserves the rights in 1. above, and a revocable, nonexclusive, royalty-free license retained by the Related Entity under 14 C.F.R. § 1245.108 or 37 C.F.R. § 401.14 (e).

F. Protection of Reported Inventions

For inventions reported under this Article, the Receiving Party shall withhold all invention reports or disclosures from public access for a reasonable time (1 year unless otherwise agreed or unless restricted longer herein) to facilitate establishment of patent rights.

G. Patent Filing Responsibilities and Costs

1. The invention and patent rights herein apply to any patent application or patents covering an invention made under this Agreement. Each Party is responsible for its own costs of obtaining and maintaining patents covering sole inventions of its employees. The Parties may agree otherwise, upon the reporting of any invention (sole or joint) or in any license granted.

2. Partner shall include the following in patent applications for an invention made jointly between NASA employees, its Related Entity employees and Partner employees:

The invention described herein may be manufactured and used by or for the U.S. Government for U.S. Government purposes without the payment of royalties thereon or therefore.

ARTICLE 13. USE OF NASA NAME AND NASA EMBLEMS

A. NASA Name and Initials

Partner shall not use "National Aeronautics and Space Administration" or "NASA" in a way that creates the impression that a product or service has the authorization, support, sponsorship, or endorsement of NASA, which does not, in fact, exist. Except for releases under the "Release of General Information to the Public and Media" Article, Partner must submit any proposed public use of the NASA name or initials (including press releases and all promotional and advertising use) to the NASA Associate Administrator for the Office of Communications or designee ("NASA Communications") for review and approval.
