

NONREIMBURSABLE SPACE ACT AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE NATIONAL AERONAUTICS AND SPACE ADMINISTRATION
GLENN RESEARCH CENTER AND
KEPLER COMMUNICATIONS US INC.
FOR INFORMATION EXCHANGE REGARDING SPACE-RELAY CAPABILITY AND DEMONSTRATION OPPORTUNITIES

ARTICLE 1. AUTHORITY AND PARTIES

In accordance with the National Aeronautics and Space Act (51 U.S.C. § 20113(e)), this Agreement is entered into by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration Glenn Research Center, located at 21000 Brookpark Road, Cleveland, OH 44135 (hereinafter referred to as "NASA" or "NASA GRC") and Kepler Communications US Inc., located at 251 Little Falls Drive, Wilmington, Delaware 19808-1674 (hereinafter referred to as "Partner" or "Kepler"). NASA and Partner may be individually referred to as a "Party" and collectively referred to as the "Parties."

ARTICLE 2. PURPOSE

NASA's Space Communications and Navigation (SCaN) Office established the Communications Services Project (CSP) at NASA GRC to meet NASA's need to migrate near-Earth missions from Government-owned to commercial space-relay communication networks. CSP's goal is to deliver operationally ready commercial space-relay communication services to the Near Space Network (NSN) by 2030. To meet this goal, CSP develops, demonstrates, and analyzes commercial relay capabilities through partnerships with industry. The purpose of this Agreement is for CSP to exchange information and explore demonstration opportunities with Kepler, a commercial space-relay communication service provider.

This Agreement will provide insight into Kepler's services and will better prepare NASA for a future operational service acquisition. Kepler's combination of S-band and optical services with polar coverage compliments the set of existing Funded Space Act Agreements managed by the CSP project. Demonstrating commercial S-Band services will reduce risk for the NASA mission community, reducing risk for early adopter missions who already use S-band for tracking, telemetry, and control (TT&C) services. Additionally, NASA will provide information about future mission needs, and facilitating engagements between Kepler and the NASA mission community, including exploring opportunities to demonstrate Kepler's S-band and optical services. The information and engagement opportunities will aid Kepler in determining if there is a suitable market and business case to provide these services in the future.

ARTICLE 3. RESPONSIBILITIES

A. NASA will use reasonable efforts to:

1. Participate in monthly status meetings during duration of this Agreement.
2. Participate in a minimum of four (4) Technical Interchange Meetings each year throughout the duration of this Agreement.
3. Provide feedback on Kepler's communication service capabilities.
4. Share information on NASA's space relay acquisition approach, including service requirements and validation approaches.
5. Facilitate meetings between CSP, Kepler, and NASA missions to assess Kepler's ability to provide communication services to future mission users.
6. Explore opportunities to demonstrate Kepler services with NASA missions and other government agency partners, in support of CSP objectives.
7. Support development of any additional agreements to enable demonstration opportunities.
8. Explore NASA participation as the Government Contracting Activity (GCA) to support Kepler in being considered for a Facility Clearance Level (FCL) to support CSP demonstrations that may involve access to classified information.

B. Kepler will use reasonable efforts to:

1. Participate in monthly status meetings during duration of this Agreement.
2. Participate in minimum of four (4) Technical Interchange Meetings each year throughout the duration of this Agreement, or when warranted.
3. Share information on Kepler's communication service capabilities and offerings which may include, but not limited to:
 - a. Service Capabilities (coverage, performance, capability over time).
 - b. User Terminals Radio Frequency (RF)/Optical, size weight and power (SWaP), interfaces, environmental, standards/compatibility, designed lifetime).
 - c. Mission User Experience (Service level agreements, scheduling, support).
 - d. Transmission security (TRANSEC).
 - e. RF regulatory approach.
 - f. Acquisition and business plan on how Kepler satellite communication (SATCOM) will be offered as a service for future spacecraft users in near-Earth orbit.
4. Provide feedback on CSP's draft service requirements and validation approaches.
5. Attend meetings with CSP and NASA missions to assess Kepler's ability to provide communication services to future mission users.
6. Explore opportunities to demonstrate Kepler services with NASA missions and other government agency partners, in support of CSP objectives.
7. Share information on Kepler's communication service capabilities and offerings for initiation of a FCL sponsorship request by NASA.

ARTICLE 4. SCHEDULE AND MILESTONES

The planned major milestones for the activities defined in the "Responsibilities" Article are as follows:

- | | |
|---|-------------------------------------|
| 1. The Parties to participate in the Kickoff Meeting. | One (1) month after Effective Date. |
|---|-------------------------------------|

- | | |
|--|--|
| 2. The Parties to participate in the Quarterly Technical Interchange Meetings. | Every three (3) months and ad-hoc as needed. |
| 3. The Parties to participate in the Status Meetings. | Monthly |

ARTICLE 5. FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

There will be no transfer of funds between the Parties under this Agreement and each Party will fund its own participation. All activities under or pursuant to this Agreement are subject to the availability of funds, and no provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted to require obligation or payment of funds in violation of the Anti-Deficiency Act, (31 U.S.C. § 1341).

ARTICLE 6. PRIORITY OF USE

Any schedule or milestone in this Agreement is estimated based upon the Parties' current understanding of the projected availability of NASA goods, services, facilities, or equipment. In the event that NASA's projected availability changes, Partner shall be given reasonable notice of that change, so that the schedule and milestones may be adjusted accordingly. The Parties agree that NASA's use of the goods, services, facilities, or equipment shall have priority over the use planned in this Agreement. Should a conflict arise, NASA in its sole discretion shall determine whether to exercise that priority. Likewise, should a conflict arise as between two or more non-NASA Partners, NASA, in its sole discretion, shall determine the priority as between those Partners. This Agreement does not obligate NASA to seek alternative government property or services under the jurisdiction of NASA at other locations.

ARTICLE 7. NONEXCLUSIVITY

This Agreement is not exclusive; accordingly, NASA may enter into similar agreements for the same or similar purpose with other private or public entities.

ARTICLE 8. LIABILITY

A. Each Party hereby waives any claim against the other Party or one or more of its Related Entities (defined below) for any injury to, or death of, the waiving Party or one or more of its Related Entities, or for damage to, or loss of, the waiving Party's property or the property of its Related Entities arising from or related to activities conducted under this Agreement, whether such injury, death, damage, or loss arises through negligence or otherwise, except in the case of willful misconduct.

B. Partner further agrees to extend this waiver to its related entities by requiring them, by contract or otherwise, to waive all claims against NASA and its Related Entities for injury, death, damage, or loss arising from or related to activities conducted under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Related Entities" shall mean contractors and subcontractors of a Party at any tier; grantees, investigators, customers, and users of a Party at any tier and their contractors or subcontractor at any tier; or, employees of the Party or any of the foregoing.

C. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Article, the waivers of liability set forth in this section shall not be applicable to:

- i. Claims between a Party and its own Related Entity or between its own Related Entities;
- ii. Claims made by a natural person, his/her estate, survivors, or anyone claiming by or through him/her (except when such person or entity is a Party to this Agreement or is otherwise bound by the terms of this waiver) for bodily injury to, or other impairment of health of, or death of, such person;
- iii. Claims for damage caused by willful misconduct;
- iv. Intellectual property claims;
- v. Claims for damage resulting from a failure of a Party to extend the waiver of liability to its Related Entities, pursuant to paragraph B of this Article; or
- vi. Claims by a Party arising out of or relating to another Party's failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE 9. LIABILITY - PRODUCT LIABILITY

With respect to products or processes resulting from a Party's participation in an SAA, each Party that markets, distributes, or otherwise provides such product, or a product designed or produced by such a process, directly to the public will be solely responsible for the safety of the product or process.

ARTICLE 12. USE OF NASA NAME AND NASA EMBLEMS

A. NASA Name and Initials

Partner shall not use "National Aeronautics and Space Administration" or "NASA" in a way that creates the impression that a product or service has the authorization, support, sponsorship, or endorsement of NASA, which does not, in fact, exist. Except for releases under the "Release of General Information to the Public and Media" Article, Partner must submit any proposed public use of the NASA name or initials (including press releases and all promotional and advertising use) to the NASA Associate Administrator for the Office of Communications or designee ("NASA Communications") for review and approval.
